ZELAYA GATHERS FORCE TO ATTACK

President Expresses Belief
That Government Will Be Able to Curb Uprising.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Oct. 15.—The revolutionists are now in possession of Bluefields, Cornito, Greytown, Rivas, Cape Gracias, Rama and San Juan del Norte.

The exact number of the adherents of the revolutionary leader, Juan Estrada, is not known.

President Zelaya is gathering the government forces for an attack upon the revolutionists at Rama and San Juan del Norte.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—A telegram dated today was received at the State Department from the U. S. consulate at Managua, Nicaragua, stating that the port of Rama, Bluefields, had been officially closed.

This is explained to mean that for the time being Rama is not a port of entry and that the government will not be responsible for customs and other duties collected by the insurgent forces. It does not mean that the port will be blocked.

The telegram states also that martial law at Managua will be proclaimed today.

This government has taken no measures thus far to protect American interests, nor is it believed any are needed at this time.

Despite the serious situation existing in the republic, President Zelaya feels confident that the government forces will be able to cope successfully with the revolutionists and put down the rising. He so declared himself in effect in a dispatch today, received by Senator Espinosa, the Nicaraguan minister at Washington.

VICTOR SAFE MAN COMMITTS SUICIDE

Cuts Throat While Waiting at Emergency Hospital to Be Treated.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—While awaiting examination in the operating room of the Central Emergency hospital in this city, to which he had gone for medical treatment, Robert P. Owen, coast sales manager of the Victor Safe Company, killed himself today by cutting his throat with a surgical instrument.

Owen had been a sufferer from asthma and a fainting spell which he experienced as the result of the disease some time ago had rendered him so dependent that he was unable to attend the business. His condition became so alarming today that his wife persuaded him to go to the Emergency hospital.

JAIL SUICIDE IS VICTIM OF ASSAULT

SPOKANE, Oct. 15.—Evidence of a murderous assault was found by a local undertaker while embalming the body of John Christen, a farmer of Elgin, Iowa, who hanged himself in jail here Monday morning. Christen had been found wandering in the suburbs badly dazed, and was being held for examination as to his sanity when he killed himself. The undertaker found that the man's skull was fractured.

Christen was coming West to care for his sister's orphan children. It is believed he was persuaded to leave the train here by robbers who slugged him, took his money and left him crazed and helpless.

ATHABASCA STILL ON ROCKS. OWEN SOUND, Ont., Oct. 15.—The Canadian Pacific steamer Athabasca, with its crew and passenger list totaling about sixty persons, is still on the rocks at Flower Pot Island. The through passengers on the Athabasca have been taken off by the steamer Manitoba and forwarded to Port William.

KEY WEST VICTIMS APPEAL FOR HELP

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Appeal was made today to President Taft by the mayor of Key West for aid for the hurricane sufferers in that city and vicinity. The telegram was forwarded by Secretary Clegg to the War Department. A copy also was sent to the American National Red Cross in this city.

The acting secretary of war has wired the army department commander at Key West and report at the earliest possible moment.

GOVERNOR DONS HIS SILK HAT! HURRAH!

EL PASO, Texas, Oct. 15.—For the first time in history Governor Campbell of Texas wore a silk hat today. When he arrived at El Paso it was difficult to recognize the governor under the unaccustomed headgear, but he announced that he would wear it until after President Taft left Texas if it killed him. Therefore the governor has worn a broad brimmed black hat.

HOTEL MEN TALK ABOUT DEADBEATS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—The second day's session of the first annual convention of the Western Hotel Men's Association was devoted to a discussion of best means of protecting hotels from swindlers and dead beats. The leading address on the subject was delivered by E. W. Paget of Denver. After the business session the delegates became the guests of the local hotel men at various entertainments arranged by the entertainment committee.

S.S.S. FOR RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is in reality an internal inflammation; a diseased condition of the blood cells which supply the nourishment and strength necessary to sustain our bodies. The disease is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood, which comes from indigestion, weak kidneys, constipation, and other irregularities of the system. This uric acid produces an inflamed and acid condition of the blood, and the circulation, instead of nourishing the different portions of the body, continually deposits into the muscles, nerves, joints and bones, the irritating and pain-producing acid with which it is filled. Then follow the painful and torturing symptoms of Rheumatism. We do not claim for S. S. S. that it is anything more than a first class blood purifier, and that is just what it is to cure Rheumatism. S. S. S. goes into the circulation, and by neutralizing the uric acid and driving it from the blood, effectually and surely removes the cause of Rheumatism. S. S. S. strengthens and invigorates the blood so that instead of a weak, sour stream, causing pain and agony throughout the system, it becomes a pure, vigorous, nourishing fluid, furnishing health and vigor to every portion of the body, and permanently relieving the suffering caused by Rheumatism. S. S. S. is purely vegetable and will not injure the most delicate system. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Social and Club News

One of the delightful events of the week was the house dance at which Mr. and Mrs. Frank Short entertained last night in compliment to Miss Rhea McMillan of San Francisco and Miss Belle Park of Boise City. Both these charming girls are of the petite type and both wonderfully accomplished. Their presence has made a delightful stir in society and jolly little impromptu parties have kept the younger set very much occupied with social pleasures.

The Short home is ideal in every respect for dancing in any other sort of entertaining. This hospitable host and hostess plan. They are especially fond of the young people and frequently ask them to their home in an informal way. Big beautiful chrysanthemums adorned the handsome dining room while in the hall and dining room were big bowls of fragrant, long stemmed roses.

After a program of waltzes, two steps and barn dances, the young people enjoyed a charming little buffet supper. Among those who danced at this delightful affair were Miss McMillan, Miss Park, Miss Thornton, Miss Martha Harris, Miss Bonnie Carter, Miss Edith and Catherine Cory, Miss Jennie Whitem, Miss Elsie Smith, Miss Lilian Dunn, Miss Anne Mow, Miss Helen Jacobson, Miss Hazel Griffith, Miss Zoe Eden, Messrs. Tom McIntire, A. W. Smith, Will and Lucien Whitem, Edna Gundelfinger, Jack Spencer, Roy Carter, Butler Minn, William Bates, Leslie Clark, Bert Einstein, Ben McChesney, William McLean, J. S. Campbell, Lloyd Griffith, James Dearhart, Reed Schaeffer, Lamm Harris, Mr. and Mrs. William Cleary, Mr. and Mrs. Creighton Hamilton, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Craycroft, Mrs. Charles R. Elliott of Seattle and Mrs. Frank Ryan of Los Angeles.

Before the dance last evening Miss McMillan was the complimented guest at a dinner given in their rooms of the Sequoia by Mrs. Stanton L. Carter, Miss Bonnie Carter and Roy Carter. The pretty oval table, draped with a turquoise and gold cloth, was set with a magnificent hair fern and pink carnations, while scattered about the table were La France roses. Pincushions were decorated with pink cards to which were attached clusters of admirers' names and carnations for the ladies and bouquets of carnations for the gentlemen. The fair guest of honor having at her place a large cluster of La France roses, and pink shaded raffles completed the charming effect.

With Mrs. Carter and Miss McMillan at table were seated Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Craycroft, Misses Adelaide Thornton, Anne Meux, Catherine Cory, Bonnie Carter, Butler Minor, J. S. Campbell, William McLean, Herbert Levy, William Bates and Roy Carter.

The Friday Afternoon Card Club held its first session for the year yesterday afternoon with Mrs. W. W. Craycroft, Mrs. George Montrose, and Mrs. George Montrose were the highest scorers. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Emory Donahoe at her home on Monday afternoon.

The Friday Study Club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Chapman at Van Ness avenue for a very interesting day on Scotland. The hostess herself traveled through Scotland and has in her possession some delightful souvenirs of her trip, which she exhibited besides giving a bright account of her travels through the land of the heather. Some of the most Scotch literary characters were discussed and their biographies and sketches from their writings given. Mrs. Barnard gave an excellent account of Scott's life and works. Mrs. Jenney a short synopsis of "The Lady of the Lake" and Mrs. Halloway read a poem of Burns.

Miss Grover Halloway gave the life of Lady Nairne and read the poem so popular in song, "The Land of the Leal." Mrs. Peterson discussed entertainingly "Jan. Macdonald's" life and works. Mrs. Vosen conducted the program with a charming Scotch song. The club is studying Albrecht so the Scotch day fitted in very nicely with the atmosphere of the play.

Mrs. Barnard will be the club's hostess at week end her home on the corner of N. Second and Fort Campbell avenues.

An event of yesterday was the reception which Mrs. J. H. Walker gave at her attractive home on the corner of Van Ness and Summer avenues. As this was the first large affair which this hostess has given since she came to live in town, it was marked by special interest. Mrs. Walker proved herself a most gracious and cordial hostess and the affair had all the charm of freshness for it was the first large social event of the season and interest in social affairs is unspeakably keen. A fire of sociability that marks the winter months seemed to be kindled.

Any number of beautiful new fall frocks were in evidence and added beauty to the scene. The interior of the Walker home is ideally arranged for entertaining and yesterday was decorated most beautifully with roses and other beautiful blossoms.

The reception rooms were done in red roses and cream, while the dining room showed a more delicate color scheme of pink. On the beautiful set of mahogany hall the punch table was arranged with golden-sulphur and roses and here Mrs. Thomas Anton dispensed a refreshing beverage during the afternoon.

Mrs. Walker received her guests in a charming parlor of rose colored silk. She was assisted by her sister-in-law, Mrs. H. P. Walker of Stockton, who was a lovely gown of old rose moire silk. Mrs. G. L. Warlow, who was from the north, wore a beautiful gown of spangled tulle with white tulle and with embroidery of the same tulle and spangled tulle. Mrs. L. O. Stephens, who wore a dainty pink gown, and Mrs. H. H. Alexander, who looked very stunning in a handsome gown of black lace and jet.

Mrs. Milton D. Hoffman and Mrs. C. H. Hoffman presided at the refreshment table in the dining room, assisted by Mrs. E. J. Bullard, Mrs. D. L. McCarthy and Mrs. Bert Larkin. Benjamin Walker and Donald Glasgow stood at the entrance to the hall and welcomed the guests.

Spillfield's orchestra dispensed music during the reception hours and nearly a hundred of the hostess' friends called during the afternoon.

Mrs. Frank Hall has sent out cards for an afternoon of bridge next Wednesday at her suburban home.

The actual survey is for a road 21.4 miles and calling for seven bridges the largest a forty-eight foot span, a thirty-six foot span, a thirty-six foot span, a thirty-six foot span and one thirty-two foot span bridge. At no place on the proposed road does the survey show a grade exceeding 6 percent, all agreeing that the Sand Creek route will make an ideal mountain road.

In this connection Mr. Bennett stated that the state highway running from Hume and that the survey had been changed to run the road into the town from the hills back of the saw mill, crossing the bed of Ten Mile creek by a bridge below the big dam enclosing Hume lake.

Another important piece of information given by Mr. Bennett was that he had appealed to the secretary of the interior to open up the park to traffic and automobiles. The request had been referred to the forest ranger in charge who had recommended the request. While the general order has not yet been issued, the rule has so far been relaxed that traffic loading has been permitted through the park reserve.

The relaxation of the rule gives promise that it is only a question of time when the park will be opened unreservedly to teaming and automobiles removing the only barrier in the way of a connection of the Sand Creek road with the state highway and to the Kings River canyon eventually. The talk is to reserve the present road in the park for automobiles and to build a new road, the grade of which is too steep in parts for heavy teaming. This difficulty can be easily overcome by projecting an easier grade road for heavy traffic traversing the park in portions far away from the groves of big trees.

MANY HURT IN RUNAWAY STAGE

RENO, Nev., Oct. 15.—One man lies at the point of death and several others are seriously injured as the result of a wild dash of the Holt-Thorne stage near Lusk, Nev., yesterday when a team of horses took fright and raced down the Bodie grade at high speed.

Driver Frank Williams was thrown out and suffered internal injuries and little hope is held out for his recovery. The passengers who suffered severe injuries were S. W. Martin of Hanbattan, Melo Plomex and Florence Florence, an employee of the Mono mill.

TRUSTED EMPLOYEE TURNS OUT FORGER

W. E. Gilliland Arrested in Merced.

Forged Pay Check for
$82.30, Left in His Custody.

MERCED, Oct. 15.—Until yesterday W. E. Gilliland was the honored and trusted employee of the Hauser Construction Company, but liquor and fondness for the society of women who love wine had its effect, and today he languished in the county jail, charged with forgery and a term in the penitentiary staring him in the face. Until yesterday Gilliland was the bookkeeper and time keeper for the Hauser Company in its construction of a large steel bridge for the Santa Fe Railroad Company across the Merced river near Livingston, in this county. In that capacity he had the handling of the pay checks. On the 8th of August a check was forwarded from the office of the company for S. Johnson, an employee, but Mr. Johnson was ill and could not receive the check, so asked Gilliland to keep it at the office until he was able to call for it. This Gilliland promised to do. A few days ago Mr. Johnson called at the office for his check, which amounted to $82.30. Gilliland pretended to look for it and finally told Mr. Johnson that it had been misplaced in some way, but that he would look it up. Something about the manner of Gilliland told Mr. Johnson that all was not right and he came to Merced and began an investigation at the bank. Here he found that the check had been cashed and had been forwarded to the head office of the company and had been paid. He also found that the check in question had been cashed by "S. Johnson," but he was not in the company and had been cashed originally by "Chas. Hoffman," proprietor of the Central hotel, who had turned it into the bank. Johnson at once took out a warrant charging Gilliland with forgery and Deputy Sheriff Ross Vander Bevel arrested him at the Merced river just as he was about to take an afternoon train for Los Angeles. Gilliland's preliminary hearing was held before Judge J. J. Griffin this morning and he was bound over to answer to the superior court in the sum of $2000, failing to furnish that bond he is now in jail. Gilliland admits that he forged Johnson's name, but said that he was drinking when he did it and needed the money, expecting to make the matter right with Johnson when he came for his check. However, he told Johnson nothing regarding the transaction. Gilliland has been in the employ of the construction company for some time and has always borne a good business reputation, although it was known that he was a high roller and at times drank heavily. Notwithstanding that fact, his employers had confidence in him, as did also all of the other employees of the company and the business men of this city with whom he came in contact in a business way. He will probably be arraigned in the superior court Monday.

ISSUE REQUISITION PAPERS.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 15.—Grand larceny is the charge that C. L. Smith will face when the authorities of the state of Washington get their clutches on the man right within their clutches. A requisition for Smith came from the governor of Washington today and the governor's office issued extradition papers at once. Smith is under arrest in San Francisco.

HEARST TALKS TO BROOKLYN CROWD

Desires to Know If Gaynor
Is Seeking to Surround
Himself With Grafters.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—William Randolph Hearst, Civic Alliance nominee for mayor of Greater New York, spoke in Brooklyn tonight in support of his candidacy. Judge Gaynor, the Democratic nominee, did not speak tonight, but Otto T. Barnard, the Republican fusion nominee, delivered a series of addresses in Manhattan.

Barnard continued to avoid personal attack in his speeches, but dwelt upon municipal issues. Hearst's speech was in characteristically vain and bristled with thrusts at former Justice Gaynor. "As the object of the Independent movement," he said, "has been not merely to provide a mayor but more to provide the mayor, whoever he may be, with honest, efficient and progressive associates in office, I can not see why Judge Gaynor should fly into such a fury of passion every time the Independent movement is mentioned. It cannot be possible that he cares to be surrounded with an administration of Tammany grafters."

"I can conceive of no greater misfortune than to be elected mayor and be surrounded by crooks and grafters and machine made politicians. Surely Judge Gaynor is as anxious to make a good record as I am, and why then is he always to be surrounded with the kind of men who will enable him to do it?"

Senator McCarren's illness perhaps was the most quiet feature of the day, although a ruling from the board of elections formally announcing the election of the Independent party. The Hearst supporters of the Civic Alliance were cause for rejoicing in the Independent ranks. This decision was announced tonight after the Democrats, who had filed a rival petition of the same name, had withdrawn their claim. This action is regarded by the Democrats as a surrender by the Democrats prompted in the main by the indictment against Tammany district leaders in connection with the alleged theft of the Independence League primaries.

BALLINGER IS IN YOSEMITE VALLEY

Declares That Great Gorge
Must Be Provided With More Public Facilities.

YOSEMITE, Cal., Oct. 15.—Secretary of the Interior Ballinger, on his return from a three days' trip through Yosemite National Park, Hetch Hetchy and Lake Eleanor, gave the following statement to the Associated Press: "My investigation of the Yosemite included trips through Yosemite valley, the Hetch Hetchy valley and, by a portion of my party, to Lake Eleanor. The information gained by me is of use in matters concerning the general administration of the park. It is important that much new road construction be undertaken and better facilities provided the public if the Yosemite is to be given that importance by the national government that its natural wonders and beauties demand. I am anxious to increase its revenues and I hope that Congress will make needed appropriations."

TRANSPORT ARRIVES.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—The U. S. transport Baur arrived today from the Philippines, bringing a large number of enlisted men of the Fifty-seventh coast artillery and many casualties. Among the returning officers were Major J. H. Gardner of the First Cavalry, Captain George L. Arrowsmith of the paymaster's department, and Captain Robert F. McWilliam of the coast artillery.

FIVE CONVICTS EFFECT ESCAPE

Relieve Guards of Weapons and Take Flight With a Large Possession in Pursuit.

SALEM, ORE., Oct. 15.—Five convicts of the state penitentiary, all short term men working as trustees at the state reformatory school, a few miles from the city, overpowered three guards today and made their escape. The guards were relieved of two rifles and a pistol, while the convicts carried away a large cache of prison goods in their flight.

SEATTLE TO HAVE PASSENGER DEPOT

SEATTLE, Oct. 15.—The Oregon and Washington railroad company, which is the Union Pacific corporation in this state, today let the contract for construction of its passenger station in this city, which will house the Union Pacific and Milwaukee trains. The building will cost $100,000 and a New York firm received the contract.

RELEASED PRISONER COMMITTS THEFT

SANTA CRUZ, Oct. 15.—Within a few hours after his release from jail Charles Grinn was arrested today by Sheriff Trafton and probably will be held on a charge of burglary. It is asserted by the sheriff that Grinn broke into the official's stable and was making away with a large and heavy when Policeman Baxter telephoned the sheriff, who in an automobile overhauled Grinn before he had passed the city limits.

WOMAN'S MARRIAGE MADSEN ANNULLED

SAN JOSE, Oct. 15.—An annulment of marriage and a $100,000 judgment against John Madsen, the polygamist, was given Josephine Anella Trethewey of Stockton by Judge Richard C. Tuley immediately after the disclosure that the man she had married was John Madsen, who had married women by the score. Mrs. Trethewey brought suit. She insists that Madsen, alias Johnson, has a large amount of property and fearing that it might be used for some other purposes, included the monetary judgment in her suit.

STEEL MAGNATES IN BIG BANQUET

Affair Is Given in Honor of Judge Gary and J. P.
Morgan Delivers Speech.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The Independent steel makers of the United States and Canada gave a dinner at the Waldorf tonight in honor of Judge Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation. More than 200 officers of the independent steel companies and practically all the officers and directors of the United States Steel Corporation were present. Charles M. Schwab was toastmaster. A feature of the dinner was a short speech by J. P. Morgan, one of the few after-dinner speakers. Mr. Morgan has even made his suit: "I wish it were in my power to say all I would like to say on this occasion. I am very much overcome by all that I have heard said, for Judge Gary and I have been working together now for ten years. Perhaps none of you appreciate how much it means to me. It is impossible for me to say more, and I must ask you to accept my appreciation of how deeply I feel for the kind evidence of your sentiments toward me tonight."

Only two years ago this month you witnessed a sudden and severe financial cyclone. The present was dark and the future gloomy. Under those circumstances and occasions there stood up in our midst a financial giant who turned his face toward the storm and with a confidence in his country and her people, and then decided to devote his friends to help in providing financial assistance to the weaker, the afflicted banks and to give aid and encouragement and words of hope and cheer to the communities at large. The result you know. The response was prompt and hearty.

"I venture to suggest that you all know that the disposition and conduct of Mr. Morgan during the trying circumstances I have mentioned were the result of his feeling of friendship for his acquaintances, his neighbors, his countrymen and humanity in general."

POLICE LOOK FOR NOTED ANARCHIST

United States and Mexico
Anxious for the Safety of Their Two Presidents.

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 15.—Mexico and the United States are searching for Alexander Berkman, the anarchist, who is said to have been seen on the streets here today. Berkman was released several years ago from the penitentiary for the shooting of Henry C. Pick.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Alexander Berkman, the anarchist and associate of Emma Goldman, was found in his room in New York tonight. When informed that secret service men were looking for him in San Antonio, he seemed much surprised.

"I have not been in San Antonio recently and do not intend to go there," he said. "I can't imagine what this reported flurry is about."

Emma Goldman is in Philadelphia, but will return to New York on Sunday in order to be present at a mass meeting here to protest against the execution of "Ernie."

NEW TELEGRAPH DIRECTORS.
NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Alvin W. Krich, Edward T. Jeffrey and Kingdon Gould were elected directors of the Western Union Telegraph Company at its annual meeting of the stockholders today. They succeeded General Thomas T. Eckert, James H. Hyde and E. H. Harriman.

The annual report showed total revenues for the year ending June 30 last of $10,541,012, an increase of $1,958,860 over the previous year.

GIRL USES ROPE TO CATCH THIEF

Lassoed Man on the Street and Ties
Him Up for the Police Officers.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Mrs. Ellen Denbirs' childhood training on a ranch in Arizona proved a valuable asset to her yesterday when she encountered a man who had formerly been a lodger in her house. She whipped out ten yards of silk rope she had just bought for decorating purposes, lassoed the man and tied him fast to a tree in Madison Square.

It was done so quickly that the victim, William H. Davis, was taken completely by surprise. Mrs. Denbirs simply smiled after her successful performance with the lasso and waited for detectives who hurried across the park to arrest Davis.

"That man came to my house," said Mrs. Denbirs, "and engaged a room. He paid me for a week in advance. Next morning he was missing and I discovered about $10 worth of my property, principally articles that were in his room, were gone also."

Davis protested his innocence, but he was recognized by the police as an old offender and was held for trial.

BLACK HAWK'S SWORD IS AT LAST FOUND

Noted Relic of Andrew Jackson Will Be Presented to the Iowa Historical Society.

DENVER, October 15.—After a search of thirty years, the sword presented to Black Hawk, war chief of the Sacs and Foxes, by President Andrew Jackson has been recovered by D. C. Treman of Denver, who will present the notable relic to the Iowa Historical Society.

The sword worn constantly by the chief, was buried with him on the farm of Captain James H. Jordan, near Iowa, Iowa. Black Hawk's body was stolen from its grave. The sword was recovered later by the Jordan family and presented to the Masonic Temple at Keosauqua, Iowa, which was burned in 1873. The sword was recovered later by the aid of a grand-daughter of Captain Jordan.

TO VOTE ON BOND ISSUE IN DECEMBER

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—The city officials decided today to lay the Lake Eleanor municipal water supply bond issue before the voters in December. According to estimates by engineers, the proposed water system will cost $43,000,000 to complete, and the voters of San Francisco will be asked to authorize bonds to this amount.

Fight Gossip

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—James Edward Britton has started for South Africa in the hope of obtaining a few fights there with lightweights. He will go to England in January, where the former lightweight champion pugilist has signed contracts to appear in vaudeville.

Willie Lewis has sailed for France, where he has a contract to take part in ten fights with second raters for a guarantee of $200 each night.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Owen Moran, English featherweight, is expected to arrive here within a day or two prepared to make a match with Abe Stettin. James Coffey, the San Francisco night promoter, will also be here and will try to arrange the match. Jim Triscoli will be here later and it is expected that he will be ready to fight either Moran or Attell.

But the principal business that brings Coffey to New York is believed to be the expected arrival of James J. Jeffries. As soon as Jeffries arrives, Coffey will submit his opponent to the neighborhood of $25,000, and if it is acceptable, final articles can be signed immediately. Of course the Jeffries-Johnson fight depends entirely on the result of Johnson's fight with Ketchel tomorrow afternoon.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

MAHERA, Oct. 15.—Manager Charlie Precado of the Coyotes is furious at the report which appeared in the morning's Republican, claiming that he is vainly misrepresenting that the Brunsicks will play his team here next Sunday. The manager thinks the sporting editor has been handed some news which he has misinterpreted. He stated that on October 12th Knapp telephoned from Fresno that since the Coyote-Brunswick game had been called off Fresno, that he could bring the Brunsicks here for a game this coming Sunday. Precado phoned him to see Bert Maul and get his consent so that there could be no mistake about it. On October 13th the manager of the Coyotes received a letter from Knapp, which says:

"The arrangements made last night will be all right. I saw Bert Maul last night."

As the Brunsicks alone had been called off Fresno, Precado had the right to believe from that letter that the Brunsicks were coming and still believe so, as the line-up published in Wednesday's Republican shows nearly all Brunswick men.

So the Brunsicks will be here, whether they seek to hide a probable defeat under some other name or not. The Coyotes have arranged to play the Brunsicks and the game will be played if Lee Knapp keeps his part of the agreement.

Smarting under the exposure by the Republican, Manager Precado is said to have telephoned Manager Lee Knapp of the Coyotes yesterday that he would declare the game off unless Knapp "fixed up" the article above referred to. Knapp stated last night that he did not say it. Precado did declare the game off, but if he took a team north it would be the Knapp's, and not the Brunsicks, as Precado has confessed in his advertisement. Knapp stated that his advertisement would wear the Knapp suits and play as the Knapp's players, inasmuch as Manager Maul of the latter team had no objection on the boys. He has not a genuine dislike for the white season. The following is the Knapp lineup and it will be seen that all three Brunsicks are in the lineup, namely: Barnes, Ray, Tuffy and Crash Maul. Here is the lineup:

1. Barnes, 2. Barnes, 3. Barnes, 4. Barnes, 5. Barnes, 6. Barnes, 7. Barnes, 8. Barnes, 9. Barnes, 10. Barnes.

English Believe Sam
Langford Better
Than JohnsonFans Across Pond Would Back Him Against Black Rival.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—If ever there was a popular fighter in the eyes of English sportsmen Samuel Langford of Boston is that one. They think that Sam can lower the colors of the best man that ever lived, and declare that he is the best man in the world who can beat Jack Johnson.

True, Sam has won many an easy battle on English soil, and true again he has won many an easy one here, and if J. A. N. Johnson ever meets him, the British sports believe that he is a real champ he will have to beat Sam again.

"The London Sporting Life" in speaking of Johnson and the man who will beat him says:

SAY CHAMP NOT AGGRESSIVE.

"The man who will beat Johnson will be the man who can 'kick' the black to go to him, for as an aggressive boxer 'Lil' Arthur leaves much to be desired. This is painfully obvious in the Johnson-Burns pictures, for when Johnson rushed he generally missed his punch, and an ignoble scuffle was the result."

"In Jack O'Brien, he met just the very man to turn the trick, did the white man, but the English sportsmen, which he unfortunately does not. Throughout their recent six-round affair in Philadelphia, O'Brien had Johnson chasing him round the ring, and a pretty hash the negro made of things, by all accounts, Jack Corbett in his prime would have been just the man to cook the Johnson goose."

"It was Corbett who gave Jeffries the fight and incidentally the night of his life when they clashed for the first time. Jeffries, for when Jeffries was boxed to order they could not have played more completely into Jeffries' hand. Their very aggressiveness was their undoing. But when Corbett faced Jeffries it was a case of two, and the same game with Corbett, facing Jeffries, the best player, Jeffries woke up to this unpleasant fact quite early in the first round, and from that time forth until the boiler-maker whipped a left hook to the jaw in the twenty-third round, there was a tight, rapid game of hide-and-seek played all around the Coney Island ring."

PICKS LANGFORD.

"But also," Corbett is slumbering upon the bar-bench, and a pugilistic tip Van Winkle to tear the barrels from the Texas negro's brow.

"There is just one man in all the world who might do it, and for that man Johnson has no kind of use. We refer to Sam Langford. Langford is a boxer of great adaptability and can box either aggressively or defensively, as circumstances demand. He has improved out of all recognition since he clashed with his fellow black, and should they meet again they will find it difficult in being accumulated."

"They pulled another Sullivan on the Boston sports the other night when Dan Sullivan, a middleweight, and brother of the twin Mike and Jack Sullivan, were in the ring at the Army Club."

Langford, in Harriman's f. Davis, the Carter, Armata and Poston, sub. The eleven is being coached by Curran.

Frisch's Brown Sharks will journey to Sanger tomorrow for an engagement with the formidable Reds of the flume town. The locals will leave on the 10:15 a. m. motor car. After tomorrow, Manager Frisch will have open dates and he would like to get a few games. His lineup has been strengthened considerably by the addition of several of the Starlet players. Here is the lineup for tomorrow's battle: Frisch, catcher; Hugh Scher, pitcher; Roll, first base; Leiler, second base; A. Frisch, third base; Smith, shortstop; McXab, left field; Barton, center field; Hoax, right field.

NO DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF A LEG

Court Rules That Artificial Limb Will Answer All Practical Purposes.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 15.—The verdict falls to give due weight to the skill with which mechanical surgery adapts an artificial limb in a favorable case, such as this, was one of the reasons assigned by Supreme Court Justice Garrison in an opinion setting aside a verdict rendered by the Essex county circuit court, by which a little girl named Aldernport obtained judgment of $3000 against a public service corporation for the loss of a leg. As the result of a trolley accident, the child's leg was amputated just below the knee.

Justice Garrison said in his opinion that the jury in giving the verdict ignored the fundamental consideration that the parents of the child are legally liable for her support until she becomes of age, so that the sum awarded by the verdict, if properly invested, would at the expiration of her infancy amount to double that awarded by the jury.

TO BREED STOCK ON FAMOUS FARM

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 15.—Dixonia, for years one of the most noted breeding farms in Kentucky, has been passed into the hands of James H. Hegglin, Major Carson, owner of the noted stud establishment, died yesterday to J. B. Hagglin for a tract of farm land. Major Carson wished to take up the breeding of blooded cattle and an intricate farming, while the pasture and stabling of Dixonia were considered too valuable to be disturbed. It is thought that this prompted the sale.

YELLS THREAT TO

ALBUQUERQUE, Oct. 15.—Shouting "Where is Taft? I want to kill him," Thomas Thorpe, an aged prospector, approached Policeman T. Guvera this afternoon a few minutes after President Taft had partly had reached Albuquerque. Thorpe was arrested at once and placed in jail for investigation. He had acted queerly during the day and at noon asked Chief of Police McMillin a number of questions, which led the chief to have him observed. Thorpe had been drinking and is believed to be feeble minded.

On the Bench

(By Chicago Hill Bailey)

You never heard the story of the trade that made Harry Steinfield a Cub and Jake Weimer a Red?

It's one of the rich yarns of baseball. It's the story of the novice bumping up against the man of experience. And in which the latter is worsted.

Charles W. Murphy, president of the Cubs, likes to tell the story. Harry Hermann doesn't think much of it. He fails to see its humor. But he's always willing to stop its telling. And any time that Murphy begins Hermann beckons the ever-waiting waiter.

"What will you have?" he queries. And "I wouldn't tell that story, Murphy. You see it takes too much time."

But Murphy is never restrained. And the story runs like this:

About thirty minutes after Murphy became president of the Cubs he received a telegram from Harry Hermann. And this is the way it began: "Could you give me a good pitcher for Harry Steinfield?"

The little president seeks the footstool of Manager Chance. He shows him the telegram and wonders why the manager lets out a roar of delight. "Could we?" said Chance. "Could we?" If we could we would win a pennant.

"But who could we give?" queries Murphy.

And Chance is lost in thought. "Touche," is the only man he would accept for a player like Steinfield, says Chance.

"Why not Weimer?" queries Murphy.

Chance looked at him in a pitying sort of way.

"It's easy to see that you are yet to cut your teeth in baseball," he answered. "Far in baseball, like in any other business, when you buy a diamond you don't pay for it in confidence. Showing what Chance thought of the pitcher.

"Well, I'll try it, just the same," retorted Murphy.

Whereupon he promptly answered Hermann's telegram with one that read like this:

"Nothing doing. Cannot possibly trade you a pitcher for Steinfield. Don't want him."

Then he awaited developments. A week later found Murphy and Chance in Cincinnati attending a baseball meeting. Hermann was there. Also talking trades.

"Now, I want one of your pitchers. You have a large pitching staff. I need a twirler."

"But," began Murphy, "what would happen to me? What would the people of Chicago say if I traded you a star like Jake Weimer, one of the most popular players in the city; an idol, I might say; or Steinfield?"

It was out and Hermann was after the bait.

"Now a trade of Weimer for Steinfield," began Hermann.

Murphy waved him away with a lordly swing of the hand. "Trade such an idol as Weimer? I want to build up my ball club, not tear it down. And when Chance heard how the deal was progressing he almost embraced the chubby president.

"Grab him and clutch the deal before he changes his mind," said the manager.

"Oh, I can get more," started the president. "I think I can get Sebring and a couple of thousand dollars cash."

"You haven't the nerve," from Chance.

"Then you make the trade," from Murphy.

"Not me. I couldn't keep my face straight while I asked for Steinfield alone for Weimer, and when it comes to getting Sebring and a bunch of coin to boot I'd break down and laugh my head off."

They met again—Hermann and Murphy.

"Weimer for Steinfield?" from Hermann.

"I can't trade off a public idol like Weimer," from Murphy.

"Yes, I know he is an idol," from Hermann. "But you can't run the club to suit your fans all the time. I want Weimer."

"I'll tell you what I'll do," from Murphy. "I'll give you Weimer for Steinfield Sebring and $4,000 cash."

And Hermann almost fell off his chair. But he didn't refuse. "I'll meet you tonight."

"And Chance will be there," said Murphy.

"They met that night—the three. Chance often placed his handkerchief over his mouth to shut out the sounds of mirth as Murphy stated the terms of the trade—Weimer for Steinfield, Sebring and $4,000 cash.

"I'll give you Sebring and Steinfield, but not the money," Hermann finally said.

Then came the great play of the club president. He arose and with a melodramatic wave of the hand announced that Manager Chance was empowered to do as he wished and that he would no longer negotiate.

"And you, Chance?" queried Hermann.

He didn't have time to get the words out of his mouth. Chance was over the table and at him. He grasped the hand of the Red president.

"You're on," and for once in his life Hermann was beaten to the query. "What'll you have?" for Chance wanted that bargain clinched.

And when you remember Steinfield, then Weimer and what he did and is doing, do you wonder that he was so eager for the trade, and do you wonder why Hermann doesn't appreciate the story.

PORTLAND, Oct. 15.—W. W. Cotton, chief counsel for the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company, testified today to the financial vicissitudes through which his company had passed and of the long periods in its history when it was not operated at a profit. He admitted an exact examination that the last eleven years had been prosperous; that the stock had increased from $10 to 25 per share in 1894 to its present high value and that dividends on preferred stock alone since 1897 had amounted to a total of 125 per cent. R. B. Miller, general freight agent of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company, was recalled for further cross examination as to rates from the coast to Idaho, which did not appear consistent with rates in the same state when compared with rates much farther away from the coast. Mr. Miller explained that the rates were lower where influenced by rates made by the Oregon Short-line out of Salt Lake and higher where "normal"—that is, not subject to any outside influence.

Examination of witness was concluded and Chairman Knapp asked counsel to submit their briefs at as early a date as possible and to be ready to argue the case in Washington, D. C., December 15.

The commission will sit at San Francisco October 19.

—On Getting a Clerk or Position as Clerk

Clerks put Marshall Field, Wanamaker, Swift, Armour—among the "owners of America". Why? Because they selected the right Clerks. And what made Field, Wanamaker, Swift, Armour—Capitalists instead of continuing Clerks? The fact that they selected the right Business and Home to train in. You can do the same. ## CARELESS.

Houseslot: "That is a bad cold you have, Subbubs!"
Subbubs: "Yes, and I came away from the house this morning without my overshoes too."

Bright Idea.

"What would you do if you were engaged to be married to the rich Miss Odour?"
"First thing I'd do would be to burn money of her to have a substitute."

Furnishes the Material.

"He is quicker than greased lightning."
"Pshaw! My man has that beat. He is the fellow that greases the lightning."

Hadn't Any Mind.

"I never lose my presence of mind," boasted young Softy.
"No, I should say not. It is very obvious that you don't," murmured Miss Cantrique.

AN OWLISH INFERENCE.

The Owl: "Dear, me! I presume that colored gentleman is the cashier of that henroost."

Not For Them.

"We ought to be so constituted that we would find joy in just living."
"That is all right, but some of us are married men."

Poor Talker.

"That man need never be troubled with insomnia."
"Why not?"
"Because if he ever feels it coming on all he will need to do will be to set himself rumbling on that threadbare favorite topic of his."

Worth Talking About.

"I had a bad quarter of an hour this morning."
"Hu! That's nothing. I had a bad quarter of a dollar."

ANIMAL MAGNETISM.

Judge Fowler: "Speak up, now! How did you come by those chickens?"
Rastus Henshaw: "Dat's jes' de trouble. Couldn't get by dem nobles ash."

REGGY TELLS WOBBY A FUNNY STORY.

Couldn't Quality.
"Her friends were charitable enough to call her trouble kleptomaniac, but she doesn't know at a glance that wasn't what ailed her."
"How could he tell?"
"She was neither young nor beautiful."

Had Use For Him.
"Could you recommend a liked girl to me?"
"I have one here," said the suave employment agent, "who is a beauty."
"Well," said the lady doubtfully, "I might try her on, but I'm not sure about her and forks."

ALL OUT.

The Count: "Ah! Ze language Americaine—how est ees droile! I set out to ze race, I lay out my money on ze black horse, ze black horse drop out, ze gray horse win out, I am out of pockette, and eet ees one out and out shame."

WELL NAMED.

"Have you seen the new dance called 'the automobile'?"
"No. Sort of breakdown, I suppose."

Wrathy.

"That woman seems to be tearing mad."
"Yes; she is ripping off a piece of her mind to hand to her husband."

Liked It.

"That woman actually talked herself to death."
"She must have died happy."

RIVALS TO THE RESCUE.

ABSENTMINDED.

"Oh, dear! I left my watch at home. Now, in me see if I have time to run back." (Pulls out watch and decides that he has.)

Usual Place.

"I am searching for a lost gold mine."
"Where have you been looking?"
"So far where it isn't."

Cruel.

"Did you read my last poem?"
"I hope so."

"COMING DOWN WITH A HEAVY JAR."

A NARROW ESCAPE FOR ALFONSO.

ENCOURAGING.

"I'm gettin' kind o' numb sittin' here on this ice. Ain't you?"
"You'll wish you were about twice as numb when pa finds out you bin fishin' on Sunday."

NOT ACCORDING TO RULE.

"Before he was married he couldn't have a cent."
"And now I suppose he has a nice little bank account."
"No; he is in debt every place he can get credit."

TRUE TO ITS NAME.

"Our mail order house can supply anything."
"But I sent you an order for a wife, and you turned it down."
"Well, it is no female order house."

THE USUAL THING.

"What would you do if you were president?"
"I don't know."
"But what do you think you would do?"
"Wake up."

POINT OF VIEW.

"The sunrise this morning was glorious."
"I thought it was rotten."
"Did you get up just to see it?"
"No; I was just going home from the night before."

LONG FELT WANT.

"Is there a microbe that bites folks and causes them to sing?"
"Never heard of it."
"Pshaw! I wanted to give one to the girl next door for a birthday present."

Of Course.

"Are these good scales?"
"Depends upon whether you want to buy or sell by them."

Remembered It.

"His wife was a better cook than his mother, but he never mentioned it."
"The mean thing!"
"He didn't get a chance. His wife kept talking about it all the time."

Always Beg.

"The eternal fitness doesn't apply to trousers."
"No."
"Because no trousers ever fit long."

NEVER CAME.

"Her uncle promised her a watch and chain on her twenty-fifth birthday."
"Stinky old thing! He knew he would never have to give it up."

NATURAL RULER.

"Which one is boss at their house?"
"The question, I declare, is really quite a stupid one. For are you not aware of the condition that exists? They have a baby there."

NOT THROUGH CHOICE.

"I hear Jones is supporting two families."
"Stupid! I didn't think that of him."
"But he is; his own and the book-maker's."

NO FUN IN THAT.

"Do you think flying machines will ever take the place of autos?"
"No, indeed. How could they? At best they could only injure the occupants."

THE HEALING ART.

Undoubtedly.

"Are automobiles really so expensive?"
"No, but hospital fees are."

His Safety.

"I understand Jenks has failed in business."
"Yes; all is lost but honor."
"He couldn't very well lose that."
"Why not?"
"Can't lose a thing you haven't got."

Matter of Desire.

"It is sometimes hard to tell whether a thing is right or wrong."
"Oh, I always determine that by how much I want it."

PROFESSIONAL INTEREST.

The Burglar: "Geel! Jest think of it, Bill. 'In them thar polar regions it's dark for six months."

NEW IT WOULDN'T DO.

"How does it come none of the women stopped to look at that twenty dollar hat?"
"A stupid clerk put a three-ninety-eight tag on it, and I have just discovered the mistake."

WELL CULTIVATED.

"Has your farmer friend a cultivated taste?"
"Ought to have," replied the horrible joker. "He has used the cultivator all his life."

BUT SHE DID.

"Heard you had a quarrel with your wife."
"Yes, a fierce one."
"What did you say?"
"Never said a word."

UNUSUAL.

"His family was starving, and he stole a loaf of bread."
"I suppose they starved him."
"No; the law starved him. I say, don't let him starve."

PLANS AUDITORIUM WITH STORE AND OFFICE FRONT

George Andrews Points Out That Such a Building Would Be Paying Business Proposition and Great Benefit To the City

A business building with three-story front and auditorium in back, the whole covering a space of 150x175, is the evolution of the convention hall idea as proposed by George R. Andrews, who has devoted much time, thought and energy to this greatly needed public project.

For this type of building Mr. Andrews believes that the Stevens property at the corner of Fresno and L streets would be an ideal location. The property consists of seven lots and can be had for $30,000.

There would be room for six small stores facing Fresno street, 20x40 feet, and these would be revenue producers. The space above, on the second floor, would constitute a number of fine offices, and the space behind would be utilizable as a gallery. The third floor would make fine officers' quarters for the National Guard, the military companies, it being assumed, would rent the hall for weekly drill.

A building of this sort, in addition to deriving an income from the stores and offices, would guarantee a public meeting place or auditorium forty feet more back from the street, so that the noise of the cars and street traffic would not disturb public assemblies.

The auditorium floor space could be as large as 150x150, with a large gallery and this would accommodate any crowd that Fresno is likely to have on occasion to gather under a single roof at one time.

Mr. Andrews believes that a building of this sort would prove a paying investment for private capital, but as a public benefit would be more important than private gain, he thinks the auditorium project should be available in its personnel. Such an auditorium would bring many public conventions to Fresno and these visitors

—you may see
—out on the world in a new way with the new Health-Ray glasses.
—what you have seen may be only a hint of what you may see.

—seeing a thing with your own eyes "is not always conclusive evidence that you see things correctly."
—you see through a window but the glass may be imperfect or soiled.
—you see with your eyes but their refractive power may be faulty.

HEALTH-RAY GLASSES.
You see with your present glasses, but you see only ten per cent of what you may see, for they admit only that per cent of natural light, absolutely excluding all the health-giving, nutritious cream of light.

The new Health-Ray Lens admits all light in natural proportions as it comes from the sun and is the only eyeglass that does.

Let us show you, in actual demonstration and tests how superior is the Health-Ray.

U. P. E. C. MEETS AT VALLEJO NEXT

Oakland and Santa Cruz Withdraw from Fight. Officers Installed Last Night, Bringing Session to an End.

With the installation of officers in Arroyo hall last evening, the 22nd annual convention of the U. P. E. C. came to an end. The supreme council will meet in Vallejo in 1910. At the morning session yesterday, Vallejo was formally selected as the next meeting place. For several days the fight has been virtually unbroken. Vallejo, however, defeated Santa Cruz and Oakland still hold out hopes against great odds. When the question came up yesterday, Oakland and Santa Cruz immediately withdrew, and the choice fell to Vallejo by unanimous vote.

The delegates as a whole were in favor of the chosen town, inasmuch as an early fight was begun by Vallejo and preparations were made to carry the fight to the convention floor with a large following. The supreme council had received communications from the Chamber of Commerce at Vallejo to the effect that the delegates would be warmly received.

The formal ending of the supreme council was yesterday afternoon with the selection of Vallejo as the next convention city. Following adjournment the U. P. E. C. band, the supreme officers and a score of delegates left the hall and paraded through the business section to the city hall, where Mayor Rowell and the city officials were waiting to greet them. A large number of delegates were present, and the city for their hospitality and kindness to the U. P. E. C.

Still headed by the band, the officers of the supreme council bearing their official regalia also paid a visit to the city hall, where the main entrance was guarded by the main entrance and other county officials. The band played a patriotic air and President Joseph V. Pereira addressed the county officials, thanking them for the courtesies shown the delegates. He declared that the supreme council would gladly vote to visit Fresno again if invited to come and voice the appreciation of the kind remarks passed on the order and the "Purgatory colony" sentiments which would never be forgotten. The speaker said he desired especially for the supreme council to visit his apartment of the sentiments of Judge Church in his address at the welcome reception.

Judge Austin responded for the county officials to say that never had an order met in Fresno that had made itself more respected. He invited the U. P. E. C. to come again to Fresno, and said that Fresno is under the order is under any debt to Fresno.

Another patriotic selection by the band and the officers saluting the procession marched off amidst handclapping.

The following officers for the ensuing term were installed last evening: President, Joseph V. Pereira of Pleasanton; vice president, Joseph C. Jorge of Merced; secretary, L. J. Martin of San Leandro; treasurer, J. G. Matros Jr., of Contra Costa; master of ceremonies, Tony Wilson of Stockton; marshal, J. E. Enos of Fresno; inside guard, R. A. S. Encarnacion of Oakland; outside guard, F. J. Matthews of Oakland; physician, Dr. J. L. Axtell of Oakland.

Directors: J. P. Cunha of Oakland, John Pereira of San Leandro, F. J. Leach of Hayward, G. V. Perna of West Oakland, A. O. Rodriguez of San Jose, J. B. Mewenka of Stockton, A. J. Pihonen of Banfield, J. O. Silva of Sausalito.

Finance committee: J. S. Joseph of San Leandro, V. T. Braga of San Leandro.

This marked the closing of the convention. About 150 of the delegates left for their homes last night and early this morning. It is estimated that about that number remained and will take trips through the surrounding country today and tomorrow. Various towns throughout the valley will be visited. The time limit for securing a release on railroad tickets is forty-eight hours after the closing of the convention. Many will take advantage of this privilege and remain in Fresno until tomorrow. Many of those living in the northern part of the state will go by way of San Francisco to view the opening of the Portland festival next Monday.

SPECIAL MUSIC AT 1ST BAPTIST CHURCH

Mrs. E. W. Florence Will Sing Two Celebrated Numbers at Morning Service.

The Baptist church, at the corner of Merced and N streets, will hold a special service at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, at which a visiting minister of high standing will preside and preach. Miss Florence, who is a member of the organ and choir, will sing "These are They," from the oratorio "The Holy City," by A. R. Gaul. As an offertory solo Mrs. Florence will also sing the celebrated hymn of the death of the mother of Christ, who mourns the death of her first born and will not be comforted—"I Mourn as a Dove," from the oratorio of St. Peter, by Benedict.

Those are both beautiful numbers and Miss Florence is especially fitted to sing them. She is a singer of large experience, a pupil of Mrs. Grace Davis Northrup and one of the soloists at the great Sunday musical recitals held at the Greek theater in Berkeley. Mrs. Florence has also for many years held the position of director and leading soloist of a fine choral society of sixty voices.

A special invitation is hereby extended to all members and friends.

S. P. ROUNDHOUSE HAS SMALL BLAZE

The fire department was called to the Southern Pacific roundhouse at 6:50 yesterday morning to put out a blaze caused by the explosion of some.

The Japanese hostler had poured out some oil and then ignited it, the oil exploding. The flames spread to the roof of the building, but with the aid of hand extinguishers, the fire was kept under control until the department arrived. Chemical No. 2 extinguished the flames with practically no damage.

PETTY OFFENDERS IN POLICE COURT

J. D. Seal, who was arrested for battery, was fined $25 or 30 days by Judge Briggs yesterday morning. Seal paid the fine.

G. A. McDaniels, the rascal who sold his rations and not drink, was given a $5 fine for his offense.

Daniel Dix was given ten days for disturbing the peace. Joe Helew was given a fine for vagrancy and Charles O'Brien was given a ten day sentence, commitment held, for inducing too freely.

TWO MORE BODIES MAY BE IN RUINS

Men Reported Missing Since Hotel Fire. Mexican and White Man Cannot Be Found; Debris Not All Searched.

That there are at least two more bodies in the ruins of the New Zealand hotel, which was destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning, is the belief of Detective Farnham of the local police department. One of the dead men is supposed to be a Mexican and the other an American.

Farnham stated yesterday that a section foreman in the employ of the Southern Pacific had come to him and told him that one of his section hands, a Mexican, who had been rooming at the New Zealand hotel, had been missing since the fire and he feared that he had been burned to death. The name of the Mexican is unknown.

Shortly before 4 o'clock on the afternoon before the fire, an unknown man, apparently a section foreman, came to the hotel and was given a room. He has not been seen since and it is feared that possibly he, too, is in the ruins.

John Cleary, who was running the hotel rooms, stated yesterday that the American was in a room which would leave his body on top of the debris, but whether or not he fell down according to theory is not known.

It has been impossible to look into the section of the hotel to any great extent, as the incineration is ten or twelve feet deep.

While nothing definite has been learned as to whether all the bodies have been removed from the ruins, it is believed that at least one of the bodies is still in the ruins. There were about thirty roomers in the hotel at the time.

Frank Beck, the aged man who was injured in the fire and who was reported to be drunk at the time, was not drunk. While he had been residing in the hotel for two or three weeks, he had been away for several days and only returned the day before the fire. He had been drinking a great deal of wine, but it is said that he was never known to be drunk.

CUMBERLAND SYNOD BEGINS ITS WORK

Rev. H. Pasco Preaches on "The Sure Foundation."

Missionary Council Is Held at Evening Session, Led By P. W. Sims.

There was a large attendance at the opening of the sessions of the Pacific Synod of the Cumberland Presbyterian church yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock and during the day a great deal of the routine work of the convention was completed.

The session in the morning was opened with devotional exercises, the leader being Rev. H. Pasco. At 9 o'clock the first session of the convention was begun, consisting of the naming of small committees. Rev. H. Pasco preached a sermon on the "Sure Foundation" at 10:30 a. m. and at the conclusion of his address adjournment was taken for the noon hour.

The assembly reassembled at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and the first business was the selection of standing committees, after which the report of the committee on the report of the committee on missions and church extension was taken up and warmly discussed for about half an hour.

A missionary council occupied the afternoon session, the evening session being held at 7:30 p. m. The council was held in the evening session, the evening session being held at 7:30 p. m. The council was held in the evening session, the evening session being held at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. John R. Walker preached a sermon during the evening on missionary work, his text being from First Samuel 17:50. Rev. Walker declared that the greatest question in the world today was sin and how to get rid of it. He then spoke of the necessity of sending out men and women to all parts of the world to overthrow the influence of sin.

The program for today is as follows: The morning will be given to committee work, preparing reports, and there will be no meetings at the church.

7:30 p. m.—Women's Synodical Missionary Society, conducted by Mrs. Biddle of Hanford.

"Progress of Missions Among the Chinese of San Francisco," by Rev. Wong Hong.

"Work Among the Chinese Women," by Mrs. Peverell.

Music by the choir.

Rolling table conducted by Miss Beaulieu.

Report of recording secretary, Mrs. Docker.

WIFE SEEKER SEEKS RESEMBLANCE

J. A. Graft, who is being held in jail on a charge of deserting his wife and minor children, appeared before Judge Smith yesterday in company with Attorney Klette and sought to be released on bonds.

Graft consented to allow the man to go on $500 bonds, but up to a late hour last night he failed to secure anybody to go his surety.

CORPORATION SEEKS TEMPORARY OFFICE

President Giffen of the million dollar main corporation is on a dollar hunt for temporary offices for the corporation, but as yet has been unable to locate anything. President Giffen is endeavoring to secure a suite of rooms on the ground floor of some centrally located building. As soon as the office gets on a permanent footing, permanent offices will be opened up.

WE SELL PORT COSTA FLOUR

To-day the art of making good cocoa is still a secret. You may never learn the secret but you can always get the cocoa—ask for

Ghirardelli's

Cocoa

Fact

No. 8

The average yield of a cocoa tree is about 1 pound a year.

The cocoa pods grow 7 to 10 inches in length and 3 to 4 inches in breadth, and look much like thick cucumbers, only deeply furrowed and contain 20 to 50 seeds (cocoa beans.)

Don't ask merely for cocoa—ask for Ghirardelli's.

Always pure and wholesome. Made from the best beans the earth yields.
